HARVARD CREWS FRAMING UP STRONG

But Six Weeks Remain Before Annual New London Regatta.

YALE COACH ADMITS TROUBLE IN SIGHT

Those Old-Time Stories, However, May Go for Some, But—?

Tribune Special Sporting Service.

BOSTON, May 5.—With only six weeks more to practice for the New London regatta, the Harvard crew is training more enthusiastically than ever.

There will be no break in the practice from now on. The work will be a steady grind until the day of the races, growing harder and harder as the weeks go by. Still, there is consolation for the Crimson rowers in the knowledge that the men at Yale are doing the same thing without half the encouragement.

The Harvard varsity eight has been

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES PREPARING FOR MEET

Foremost Track Artists in State at Cummings Field Next Saturday.

High school athletes are now at their height. The big State meet is to take place on the coming Saturday, and from now until then the boys of all the State high schools will do some pretty tall hustling. The schools which have signed up to enter teams in the meet are the high schools of Salt Lake, Park City, Ogden, Provo, American Fork, Lehi, Mant, Payson and the Utah county high school. This will make a total of about 100 contestants in the meet. To run all of these it will be necessary to have heats in all the running events. For the winners of each event the University will give silver medals and to the winning school it will give a silver trophy instead of a pennant as usual.

Hard Stunts for Red and Black.

The Salt Lake high school boys will this week be worked very hard. A hard try-out is what Coach Callahan has framed up for the everyday schedule.

The line-up of the team has practically been decided upon by Mr. Callahan and Capt. Jensen, but will not be made known until next Friday.

Ogden Has Strong Team.

Ogden has been working hard, and Capt. Craig says that they will be supported by a better team than ever before. They will also

'VARSITY ATHLETES EASILY VICTORS

Defeat Provo Track Team by Overwhelmingly Large Score.

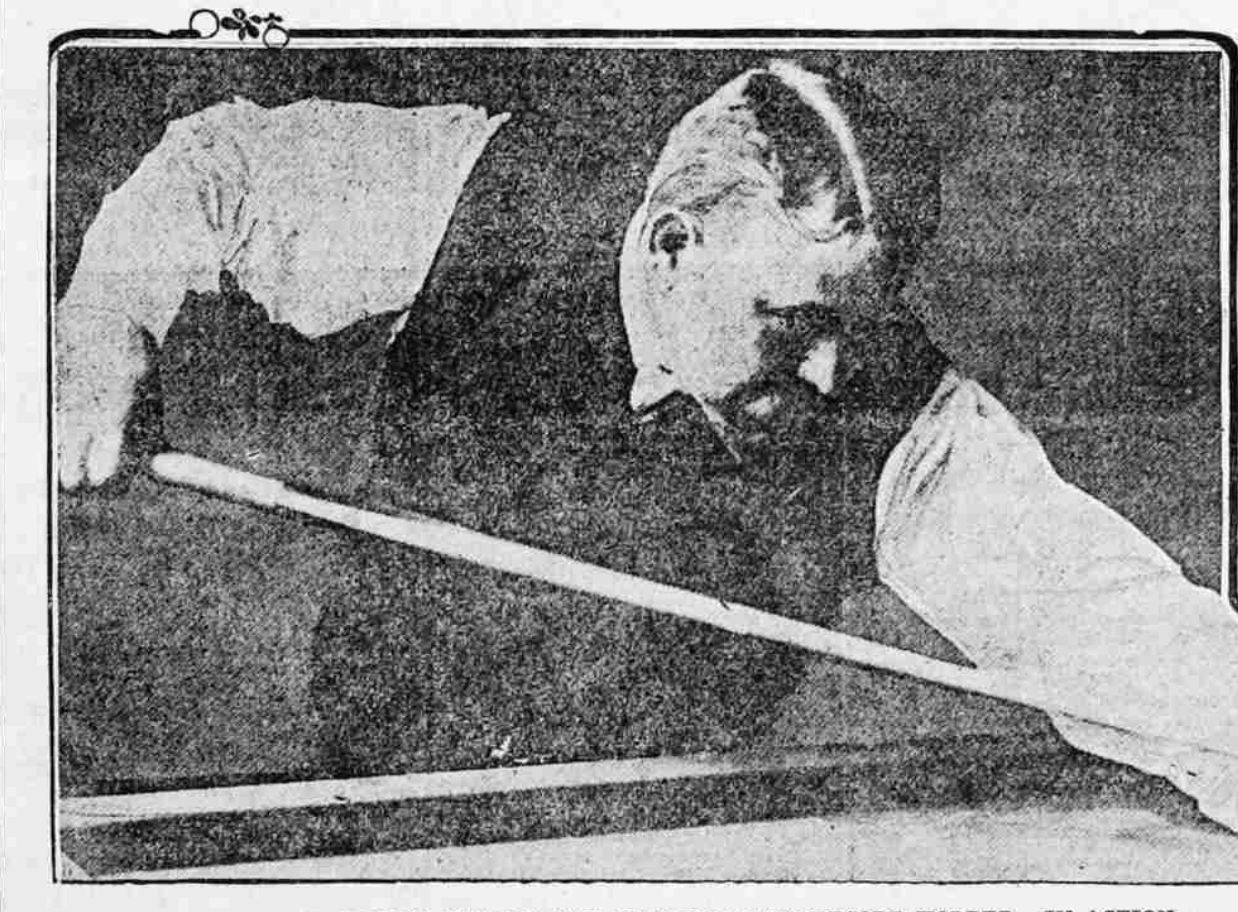

SPECTACULAR FINISH IN THE ONE-MILE RUN

Disagreeable Feature Afforded by Skausen of Provo in Relay Race.

By the overwhelming score of 98 to 13

Provo went down to defeat before the University of Utah track team on Cummings field yesterday afternoon. The students of the big State school had expected an easy victory, but even to them the result was a surprise. Provo did not win first place in a single event. Three seconds and four thirds was the best Provo could do, in spite of the gameness of her plucky athletes.

The story of the whole meet is summed rowing in practically the same order for about a month. This speaks well for the individuals and for the chances of the crew as a whole. In rowing, harmony and combination work count as they do in no other sport. A mistake of one man goes to the work of all the others. A crew may be compared to a hand of eight fingers. To Harvard's carelessness in the past in the many shifts which were made is attributed many of her defeats. This year things will be different. Coach Kennedy of Yale says himself that the Crimson has a different proposition to offer the Blue this year. Kennedy and Coach Morse were at Cambridge during the Yale vacation looking over the rival eight.

Yale Coach Worried.

"The Harvard crew at the very outset gives evidence of tremendous power and individuality, and the men are husky, well-developed athletes. The boat is forced through the water on an even keel, which I fancy is largely due to the timing of the component parts of the stroke and their proper assembling. I see a little difference in the stroke from that of last year, and both Yale and Harvard are apparently striving for the same results."

Show Big Improvements.

"The rowing gives evidence of a big improvement in the recovery over that of last year, for the men get their hands away quicker, start their seats more smoothly and lose no time in doing it. Coach Wray and Captain Filley are undoubtedly responsible for this. The chief characteristic of Captain Filley's work is the rhythm and steadiness of his stroke. He looks bigger and stronger than last year and shows marked improvement. In fact, I doubt if his work could be improved upon."

Remarkable Diplomatic Spiel.

Kennedy, with true collegiate diplomacy, adds: "I do not mean to convey the impression that the crew at Harvard is a finished one, however. For it will take considerable practice before it can be classed as a clever combination. We at Yale are inclined to be carried away with the work of our crews and the showing they have made in the time trials, but when we remember that we are about five weeks ahead of last year in our early training, things assume a different aspect. In order to make an accurate comparison of this year's crews with those of last year we must compare the present form with that shown in May of last year. It is fortunate that there is a long prelimweek.

The other schools have not been heard from as yet, but they can be counted on to have good teams. The Payson team is said to have extra line men, and claim that they are going to do things in the meet, which will be held at Cummings field.

HYLAND TO MEET KID GOODMAN

Will Leave for East Immediately After Lyric Theater Engagement.

Manager Sammy McClintic, the clever handler of Fighting Dick Hyland, received a telegram last night from Seattle, where Hyland is offered a chance to meet Rufe Turner, the husky colored lad from the coast, but Sam says he draws the line at dusky gentlemen.

Word was also received from P. J. Carroll, the well-known Chicago promoter, desiring a chance to bring Tommy Mowatt, the "lightning conductor," on to Utah and meet Hyland at Ogden, but both these offers have been turned down to accept a more advantageous proposition from Billy Pierce, editor of the Boston Police News, and also manager of the Lincoln and Douglas boxing clubs in that vicinity, for a fight with Kid Goodman, the fast lightweight, who is also in line for the championship.

Hyland was introduced to the large audience at the Lyric theater last night where the management again announced that he would give a boxing exhibition with Kid Broad next Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

After this engagement he will leave for Boston, along with Joe Greggains and Manager McClintic.

Navy Crew Outrows Yale.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 5.—The Naval academy defeated the Yale boat crew this afternoon by a length. The winners finished strong, while Yale was greatly distressed at the finish. Time, 10:45.

up in the single word—"outclassed." This is a bold declaration of naval lead in view of the fact that Provo only four years ago won out over the University in the State track meet, but it only goes to show the wonderful growth of University athletics.

In most of the events the struggles for victory that brought the crowd to its feet were between University men, notably in the mile and hundred-yard dashes.

Large Crowd of Provocites.

The Provo rooters occupied seats in the grand-stand and never failed to give their men merited applause. The music furnished by the B. Y. U. band was greatly enjoyed by the crowd.

In the 100-yard dash Parke surprised University of Utah rooters by running a dead heat with Capt. Moore. Parke got a good start and led the bunch of speedsters almost to the tape. On the last twenty yards Moore let out a powerful burst of speed and when the men crossed the tape they were shoulder to shoulder. Hyland, one of the judges, thought Parke won, but the other two called it a dead heat. The time was 10 4-5 seconds. Considering the stiff breeze that the men had to buck, this is not bad time. Parke Whitney sprung a surprise by winning third. At the tape he was trying to crowd in between Moore and Parke, but he had the race gone ten yards farther there is no telling but whether the three men would have finished abreast. In the 200-yard dash Capt. Moore won out handsily, leading the whole bunch by several feet. Parke was second.

Mile Run Sensational Event.

The mile run furnished the most spectacular finish of the day. On the last quarter Scott, who had been leading the bunch, picked up a lively gait when about 50 yards from the finish. Bailey, his team mate, was after him. Leaving the rest of the bunch behind, they started for home at a killing pace. They came into the stretch abreast, both men straining every nerve and muscle. Still they kept up the killing speed, neither man gaining an inch. The crowd in the grand-stand the bleachers stood up and cheered for the runners. Both of the youngsters were tired but fatigue was conquered by grit. Determined to win, they pressed forward and twenty yards from the tape found themselves still abreast. As they whirled on Bailey forged ahead inch by inch and lead Scott over the tape by a scant foot. It was a great race and both men demonstrated that they are comers. Victory gives Bailey his track record. The time, 5:39, is a little slow, due to the stiff breeze.

Provo Strong in Half-Mile.

It was in the half mile that Provo made best showing, winning both second and third places. Pitt won the event after a splendid sprint that covered the last 25 yards. When he first jumped away from the bunch it was thought by many that he had started too soon, but he managed to fight the race through, though it was a mighty task. Holdaway was a good second and Stallings was third. The time was given out as 2:15, although one of the watches registered 2:12 1-2.

Cuddy Russell Trims Bennion.

Cuddy Russell surprised the rooters by winning the hammer throw over his team mate, Fred Bennion. Even now Cuddy does not believe that he did the trick and declares that either the tape was short or the hammer light. But the fact is Cuddy got a powerful lift on the lead ball and sent it out 134 feet and 19 inches. The State record, held by Bennion, is only 135 feet.

In the shot put Fred Bennion won out easily. Brown was second and Swapp third. The distance was 34 feet 7 inches. Nielsen, the young hurdler, won his track "U" yesterday by winning first place in the low hurdles. In getting over the hurdles he showed splendid form and although hard pressed by Rose won out. Hunt won the high hurdles. Parke was a close second.

Provo's Roughhouse Tactics.

The only disagreeable feature of the meet occurred in connection with the final event, the mile relay. Pitt and Skausen started the race. As they were turning the first curve Pitt pressed his man a little too close. Skausen immediately began to elbow him and ended by giving Pitt a thrust that sent him reeling head first to the track. As Skausen finished alone, the crowd blessed him. Coach Tietzel deplored the incident, and said that Skausen should have stopped and claimed a foul, which would have given Provo the event. He said that Skausen was excited and bewildered, but refused to defend his conduct.

Utah won the relay easily. In the pole event Utah won all three places, despite the fact that Adams was not allowed to compete. After the contest Adams gave an exhibition, cleared the bar at 11 feet before he stopped. The crowd gave him an ovation.

Brown Wins 4:40.

In the quarter-mile Brown made a splendid showing, running the race in the good time of 55 seconds flat. Had it not been for the wind many believe he Great Interest Taken.

The employees of the Keith-O'Brien store have promised to turn out to a man—and a girl—and will yell their heads off for their favorite team. And the rooters from the other institution will undoubtedly support their teams in a similar manner.

New Annapolis Football

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 5.—The Yale Alumni Weekly makes the following comment as follows: "John M. O. L. S., captain of the track and field team, left end of the eleven last year, coach the football team of the States Military Academy at Annapolis next fall. Gates played third base the Andover eleven and captain of the last year, when he played for the school, and has been on the team for three years. He has been at Yale last fall. As a football and track captain at Yale, he has shown the qualities which make a good coach. He should be successful in his new work."
